

Pak Army killed one lakh men in Ctg.

CHITTAGONG, Dec. 30:— Over one lakh civilians were killed in Chittagong district by the Pakistan occupation Army and their collaborators, according to reports of a preliminary survey conducted by the Awami League liberation Council.

The Pakistan Army killed about 500 people in Chittagong town alone on December 16, a day before the occupation troops retreated from there.

More than 15000 women were dishonoured by the occupation troops in the district since March last.

The survey also revealed that property worth about Rs. 500 crores was either looted or damaged during the period.

The headquarters of the area's Liberation Council which has now been moved here is also conducting a detailed survey of the Pakistani barbarism in the area union-wise.

Meanwhile, the Awami League workers have recovered looted properties worth about Rs. 11 lakhs. These were being returned to the owners on proper identification.

50,000 in Khulna

Yet another evidence of genocide by the Pakistani occupation forces has come to light with the discovery of killing ground at Gollepara near the radio station in Khulna from where a large number of bodies and human skulls have been exhumed.

Though no immediate estimate of the killings at this spot is available, local count puts the figure between 15,000 to 20,000.

The number of persons killed in the entire district during the nine months is more than 50,000.

Local residents said soldiers brought the civilians to this ground, shot them and threw the bodies in the nearby canal.

A large number of people have been visiting the place in the hope of identifying the bodies of their relatives killed by the Pakistani troops.
