

Mass graves found in Satkhira

From Our Correspondent

SATKHIRA, Feb. 17:—A secret site at Satkhira where the barbarous Pakistani Army killed and buried many civilians was found recently.

A number of mass graves containing a large number of skeletons were found there. According to local people many civilians were brought to Mahmoodpur camp and Satkhira Govt. High School and later killed by the Pakistan Army. Bodies of these victims were put in these mass graves. The local people showed me more mass graves around the camp. Skulls and severed parts of human bodies were scattered near the graves.

When the Police Investigation Officer Mr. Abdul Hannan was in search of mass graves on the side of Satkhira Govt. High School and Mahmoodpur Camp he met Mrs. Aeysha Begum and Mr. Afsaruddin who gave the particulars of slaughter site.

Worn civilian clothes scattered around the grave indicated that the victims were all civilians. It is suspected that several hundred skeletons would be found in these graves.
