CHHAMB IS LIBERATED

IAF losses now 104

From M.A. MANSORI
RAWALPINDI, Dec 7: Pakistan Army, continuing its thrust beyond River Tawi, has liberated the strategic town of Chhamb in occupied Kashmir. This is the second time since 1965 that the Pakistan Army has captured this town and are inside Indian-held Kashmir.

In New Delhi, according to Reuters, the Indian Defence Minister Mr. Jagjivan Ram admitted the withdrawal of Indian troops in the face of the Pakistani thrust. He told Parliament, "There has been intense pressure in the Chhamb sector. We have withdrawn our troops to prepare positions on the River Manawar Tawi."

An official spokesman told newsmen here today that our troops destroyed a large number of enemy tanks and captured ammunition dumps in the Chhamb positions. The Indians fought bravely but could not hold on against the Pakistani thrust.

UN ASSEMBLY ASKED TO ACT

UNITED NATIONS Dec 7 The United States again blamed India for broadening the crisis with Pakistan, urged the UN General Assembly to pass a resolution calling for an immediate cessation of hostilities and the return of the two countries' forces.

Word of God

And when they went out against Goliath and his forces, they said: "Our Lord, pour out patience on us and make our steps firm and help us against the disbelieving people. So they put them to flight by Allah's permission. And David slew Goliath, and Allah gave him kingdom and wisdom, and taught him of what He pleased. And were it not for Allah's repelling some men by others, the earth would certainly be in a state of disorder; but Allah is full of mercy to the worlds." (Al-Quran: 2:250-51)
