

Pakistan's Holy War
Special to The New York Times

RAWALPINDI, Dec. 7 (Delayed) — Military spokesmen here have been asked repeatedly for some indication of Pakistan's casualties in the last four days, and tonight one replied:

"I have asked our people that question and as a matter of fact the answer is that we have had no losses. In the pursuit of jihad [Moslem holy war] nobody dies; he lives forever."

The New York Times

Published: December 9, 1971

Copyright © The New York Times