

Citizens Peace Committee renamed

The peace committee, till now known as Citizens Peace Committee, has been renamed as "Central Peace Committee for East Pakistan" at a meeting held yesterday. The committee will operate on all East Pakistan basis, reports APP.

The committee will have powers to co-opt more members as and when necessary. The Central Peace Committee will take all steps to help early restoration of normalcy in the province so that people may begin their avocation of life to rebuild the economy of the province as quickly as possible.

The committee further resolved to set up units at districts and subdivisonal levels for carrying out the mission of the committee.

The Central Peace Committee for purpose of efficient and quick disposal of its activities and for executing its policy in right earnest, has set up a 21-member Working Committee comprising the following as members:-

Messrs S. K. Khairuddin, Convener, A.Q.M. Safiqul Islam, Ghulam Azam, Mahmood Ali, Abdul Jabbar Khaddar, Maulana Siddique Ahmad, Abul Quasem, Mohan Mian, Maulana Syed Muhammad Masoom, Abdul Matin, Ghulam Sarwar, Akhteruddin, Pir Mohsenuddin, A.S.M. Sulaiman, A. K. Rafiqul Hussain, Nuruzzaman, Ataul Huq Khan, Toaha Ben Habib, Major Afsaruddin, Dewan Waresat Ali and Hakim Intezar Rahman.