

Mymensingh, Jamalpur, Bogra cleared Armed Forces in control of border

The Pakistan Army in its drive to clear anti-state elements has on Friday cleared Mymensingh, Jamalpur and Bogra of the miscreants and Indian infiltrators, reports APP.

Similarly Phulchari in Rangpur district has also been cleared of all miscreants and Indian infiltrators. Every where the Armed Forces were welcomed by the patriots and peace-loving people.

It is stated in Dacca on Friday that the Pakistan Armed Forces are now in control of East Pakistan border all along the neighbouring Indian state blocking routes of further infiltration.

This seals the fate of infiltrators and anti-state elements in the province who have been relying on support from across the border

After sealing the border, several columns of Pakistan Army are moving in various directions in a determined bid to destroy the left over isolated small pockets of infiltrators and remnants of anti-state elements in East Pakistan.
