Pakistan not to sign defence pact with China

TEHERAN, Aug 21—Pakistan's Secretary of Defence, Mr. Muhammad Khan, has said that Pakistan and China were considering a defence treaty, reports AFP.

In an interview published today in the Tideman Journal, Mr. Khan said that Pakistan and China had been discussing the possibility of a formal defence treaty. He said that a treaty would be signed in the near future.

Pakistan and China were negotiating to sign a defence treaty, Mr. Khan said. He added that the treaty would be a formal agreement between the two countries.

E. Pakistan Razakars Order

The Order is known as "The East Pakistan Punjab Order, 1971," and it mandates the punishment of persons who carry weapons, build fortifications, or obstruct the Administration in the discharge of its duties.

The Order also provides for the seizure of property and the imposition of fines on persons who violate its provisions.

In Pakistan

$ dealings again from Tuesday

KARACHI, Aug 21—Deals in the currency market are expected to resume in Pakistan from Tuesday, according to indications from the Associated Exchange Bank, reports AFP.

But it entirely depends on the reopening of the money market and the situation in the world which were closed due to the Higher Court order. The reopening of the market has now been announced by the President of Pakistan, reports the Associated Press.

Nixon will meet Hirohito

SAN FRANCISCO (Calif.)* Aug 21—President Nixon has decided to fly to Alaska to meet Emperor Hirohito of Japan in a move seen as an attempt to rekindle friendship between Japan and the United States, according to reports.

The meeting, which was announced on September 4, will be the first between a President and an Emperor since World War II.

t move may be frustrated

I'm afraid you've made a mistake.

The situation has been clarified. The moves you've made are not going to be reversed.
S. African head of state to visit Malawi

BALANTRE, Aug. 21—South African President Banda, who is visiting Malawi next week, will be brought back here on the return of a five- day visit to Nigeria and Senegal to be made by Mrs. Banda, who is also here for the visit, says Reuters.

Mrs. Banda, who is due to leave for the visit, said President Banda said that the trip would be a good opportunity to see what the crops are like in the country.

Curfew extended in Western Ceylon

COLOMBO, Aug. 21—An anti-insurgent curfew which is now in effect in a large part of the province, has been extended to the whole province, according to the government, which said that it was necessary to keep the peace.

No curfew was declared in the central area of the province, which is the site of the main town, but the government said that the curfew would be extended to the whole province in the near future.

The government said that it was necessary to keep the peace in order to prevent the spread of violence.

JAKARTA distants face famine threats

JAKARTA, Aug. 21—An acute shortage of food in the interior region of West Kalimantan threatens 400,000 persons with famine, according to the daily newspaper Harian Kini, which reported today, sources AFP.

Agricultural harvest failure in March and April,人们 in the East and Central Java area, and a failing leafy leaves, the newspaper said.

BACEA, K GS. P.

The government has also announced that it will provide food aid to the families affected by the famine.

The situation in the interior region of West Kalimantan is critical, with many families struggling to survive.

On the other hand, the government has taken steps to ensure that the food aid reaches the affected areas.

The government has also announced that it will increase food aid to the families affected by the famine.

The government has also announced that it will increase food aid to the families affected by the famine.

Optional levy

(Continued from page 1)

The demonstration levy should approach the banks which have been designated by the government to receive the levy, according to the government.

It will also be the first time that the Japanese head of state has set foot on foreign soil.

No pact

(Continued from page 1)

The one they recently signed with India, he said, is being supported by the United Nations.

The agreement was said to be of great importance in the region.

The government said that it was necessary to have a strong and united front against the enemies of the region.

The government said that it was necessary to have a strong and united front against the enemies of the region.

Ordinance

(Continued from page 1)

The ordinance was passed by the government to strengthen the Ordinance.

The ordinance was passed by the government to strengthen the Ordinance.

JAKARTA, Aug. 21—An announcement by the government of East Pakistan to encourage the government of the United Nations to extend its authority to the areas affected by the famine, which is affecting more than 400,000 people, has been reported today, sources AFP.

The government said that it was determined to extend its authority to the areas affected by the famine, which is affecting more than 400,000 people, has been reported today, sources AFP.

The government said that it was determined to extend its authority to the areas affected by the famine, which is affecting more than 400,000 people, has been reported today, sources AFP.