

A batch of Razakars completed their training in Dacca on Sept. 13. They are being assigned various duties at different parts of Dacca district. The picture shows a group of Razakars busy in target shooting on the last day of training.