

Razakars kill 19 Indian agents

Razakars and Mujahids on Monday cracked down heavily on Indian agents in Jessore, Gopalganj and Chittagong Hill Tracts killing 19 of them besides capturing a sizable quantity of arms and ammunition including one light machine gun.

The Razakars in Jessore district wiped out a hide-out of Indian agents near Sukpukuria, killing 10 of them in the action.

They also discovered an arms catch and seized 83 pounds of explosives, four rifles and eight hot guns.

In Chittagong Hill Tracts, Razakars killed 4 Indian agents while clearing the Bandarbari area, about 18 miles south of Kaptai. They also recovered 2 rifles and 18 hand grenades.

A riverine platoon of Mujahids encountered Indian agents near Phukura on the eastern bank of river Madhumati in Gopalganj area. They killed 5 Indian agents and recovered one light machine gun, nine rifles with 450 rounds and 11 grenades.
