

Razakar commanders' parade

The passing-out parade of first batch of Razakar Company Commanders was held at Savar, 15 miles from Dacca city, reports APP.

Lt. Gen. A. A. K. Niazi, Commander, Eastern Command and Martial Law Administrator, Zone 'B' reviewed the parade and took the salute.

It may be called that junior leadership up to the rank of Company Commanders is provided by the Razakars themselves. The first batch of Company Commanders passed out on Saturday at the end of their two-week training. The next course is due to commence on Monday.

After reviewing the parade Gen. Niazi, in a brief address, appreciated their turn-out and standard of drill. He said he was particularly impressed by the cheerful and confident faces and high morale of Razakar leaders.

Talking of their role, Gen. Niazi said that Razakars, on the one hand, should go all out to eliminate all traces of Indian agents in the province and on the other, persuade the misguided youth to see the right path as they gained nothing out of their disruptionist activities.

The General also warned the Razakars against the treachery of their enemy who was employing various methods to undo Pakistan.

In the end, Gen. Niazi prayed for their success in the noble cause.

After the parade, Gen. Niazi informally met the Razakar Company Commanders and shook hands with them. They also raised full-throated patriotic slogans expressing their determination to defend the solidarity of their homeland.
