

10 000 slain in Pakistan civil war

NEW DELHI. — Civil war is still raging in east Pakistan and reports coming through say that at least 10 000 civilians have been killed in bitter fighting.

New judges appointed

CAPE TOWN. — A Johannesburg advocate, Mr. A. D. Davidson, has been appointed as a judge of the Transvaal Division of the Supreme Court as from April 16, the Minister of Justice, Mr. Pelsler, announced last night.

Two Transvaal judges have been appointed as Judges of Appeal as from April 16 — Mr. Justice P. J. Rabie and Mr. Justice G. van R. Muller.

The resulting two vacancies in the Transvaal Division will be filled by a Johannesburg advocate, Mr. S. C. Margo, Q.C., and a Pretoria advocate, Mr. H. H. Moll, S.C. — Sapa.

Troops used tanks and artillery against followers of break-away leader Sheikh Mujibur Rahman who has since been arrested.

The civil war broke out after Rahman proclaimed the region an independent republic.

Pres. Yahya Khan has outlawed the Sheikh's Awami League and denounced the Sheikh himself as a traitor whose crime "would not go unpunished."

Political activity throughout Pakistan has been banned and total censorship has been imposed.

Official communications between East Pakistan and the rest of the world have been cut. The only news about the dramatic events in the region have come in clandestine radio bulletins broadcast from Dacca and from reports by travellers crossing into India. — Sapa-Reuters.

BOOM

which will probably put pulp to the head of the Swaziland's foreign currency earners. An added production of